TempWorks & Sense

Sense is the only talent engagement and communication platform built for staffing. Effortlessly turbocharge recruiting, marketing and contractor care teams to dramatically improve the candidate experience, lower contractor attrition and increase redeployment.

With Sense Journeys build workflows that seamlessly transition from automated to personal, 1:1 communication, and send emails and text messages at the right moment for improved engagement across the candidate lifecycle. Accelerate the hiring process by giving recruiters a scalable, two-way texting tool and reach candidates in the way they prefer. Send hundreds of unique touchpoints in minutes, grow engagement rates exponentially, and make more placements, all from one integrated platform.

Use Sense analytics to track open rates, response times, and candidate engagement to uncover talent trends and actionable insights to proactively improve your business. Source feedback directly with pulse checks and NPS surveys at every stage of the talent lifecycle and automate follow-up communication to ask for more information or referrals and reviews.

Sense's enterprise-ready integration with TempWorks augments recruiter productivity by activating your data with the best of two powerful systems, together. Every message and response is written back to the correct TempWorks contact, while every TempWorks field is accessible to make your outreach relevant, personal, and timely.

Make happy talent your competitive advantage. Personalize, automate, and optimize each step of the candidate journey with the only all-in-one solution built for staffing.
